FAMILIES:

Families are certainly welcome to participate in the Battery's camp activities. Women and children staying in the camp, however should be attired in period dress and conduct themselves as a civilian of the 1860's.

MILITARY PROTOCOL:

Proper military protocol will be observed at all times during living history events. Rank and individuals within the battery will be determined by a vote of the membership. No individual will assume a rank higher than a private with out the consent of a majority of the membership.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE:

20th century styles, (i.e. hairstyles, jewelry, etc.) may conflict with 19th century impression. This should be given serious consideration. You may be asked to remove certain items or alter your appearance for historical accuracy.

Any questions on items and personal equipment or modifications to the requirements mentioned above may be brought before the Authenticity Committee for acceptance. Any questionable impression must be documented from three different sources proving its acceptability in a light artillery battery of 1861-1865.

As stated, the purpose of Battery C 1st RI Light Artillery, Inc. is to serve as a living history, educational organization. It is not our intent to alter or rewrite history. We are simply attempting to portray a Federal light artillery battery during the period of the American Civil War as accurately as possible.

I have read the preceding guidelines and agree to comply with them.
